Experience The Spectacle Like Never Before

During the 2018/2019 season, EEM was proud to introduce an innovative way to experience the horse sport lifestyle. EEM Society launched at the Longines Masters of Paris and is the first membership club of its kind to blend of luxury, glamour, networking, and lifestyle. Every detail will be seamless in a unique club with three levels of hospitality in the heart of all the action at the Longines Masters of New York.

Blue. Black. Imperial.

The BLUE membership is the entry level experience to the Masters Series with choice of session for customized experiences. Ringside seating and unlimited access to the Grant Thornton VIP Lounge along with unlimited food and beverage.

The BLACK membership is one-time cost for all experiences offered at the Longines Masters of New York. Ringside seating and unlimited access to the Grant Thornton VIP Lounge along with unlimited food and beverage.

The IMPERIAL membership is the pinnacle of the Masters experience. With an unparalleled setting, the IMPERIAL plan offers the possibility to accommodate up to 32 guests for our four sessions over three days. Multi course meals, white glove service, and best in show define the imperial membership.

USA Hungry for a Win in Riders Masters Cup

Continuing in 2019, the second annual Longines Masters of New York is the fourth leg of the thrilling Riders Masters Cup. After winning the inaugural Riders Masters Cup event during the 2017 edition of the Longines Masters of Paris and then again at the first Longines Masters of New York in April 2018 for the overall victory, the Riders Europe team rode to a remarkable hat-trick win on home soil in the third installment in the French capital city. The Riders Masters Cup heads to the Big Apple on Saturday, April 27, 2019, as Riders USA will have the chance at redemption at the Longines Masters of New York.
