Four-time U.S. Olympic medalist Beezie Madden claimed victory in the $50,000 Old Salem Farm Grand Prix CSI2*, presented by The Kincade Group, riding Breittling LS on Sunday, May 14, at the 2017 Old Salem Farm Spring Horse Shows, running through May 21 at Old Salem Farm in North Salem, NY. Also on Sunday, Early Winter, owned and ridden by Aubrienne Krysiwicz-Bell, of New York, NY, was named Grand Junior Hunter Champion to highlight hunter competition.

"Anytime you win it is special because this is quite a humbling sport; you can win one day and be on the ground the next. Last year, I concentrated a lot on the Olympics and didn't try to win many grand prix events, but this horse and picked up two wins already this year and it feels great." ~Beezie Madden

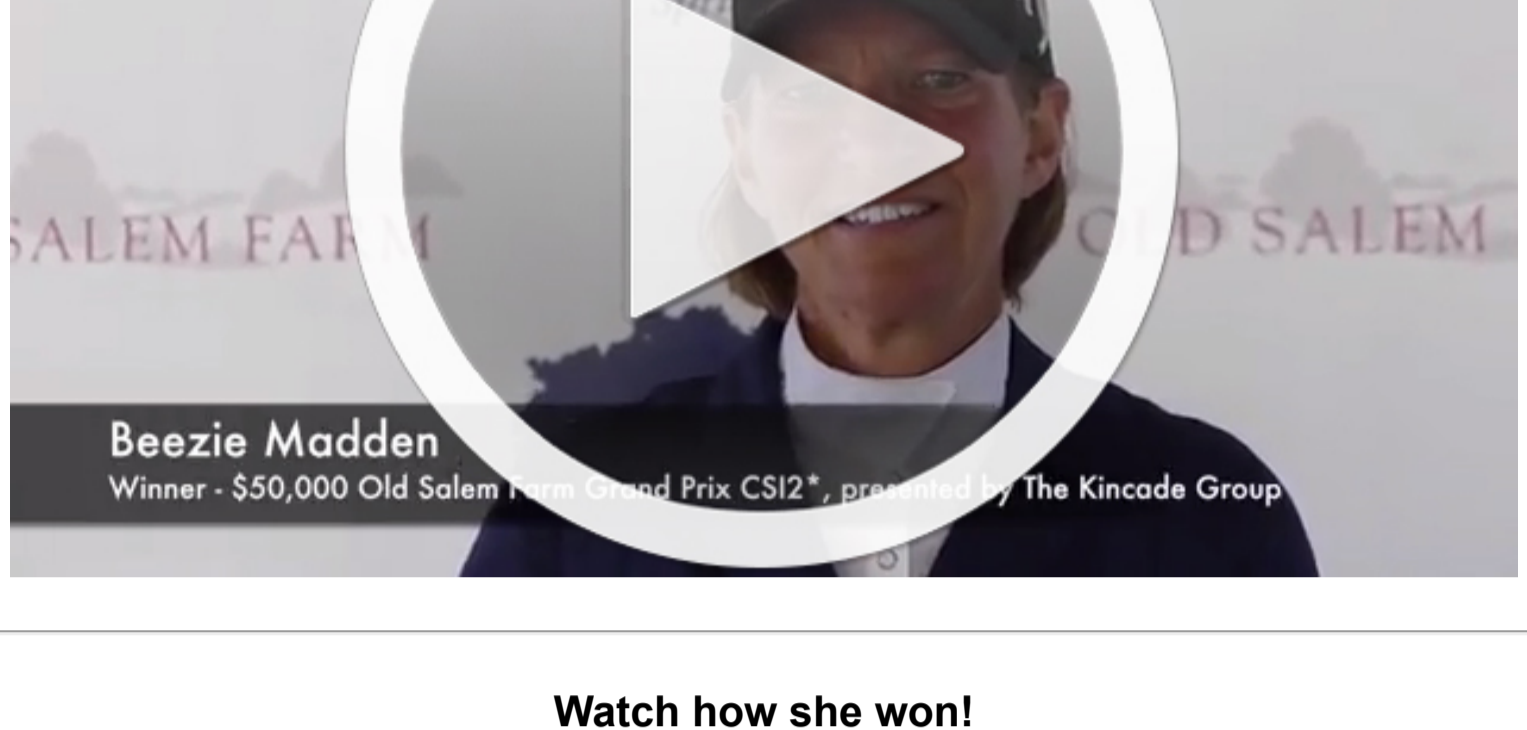

Madden, who hails from Cazenovia, NY, bested a field of 48 horses for the win over a course designed by Ken McCormick of Westminster, MD. Riding Breittling LS, an 11-year-old Dutch Warmblood stallion (Quintero x Accord II) owned by Abigail Wexner, Madden was third to return in a ten-horse jump-off and crossed the timers clear in 37.34 seconds, which eventually stood for the win.

"It is difficult to build a two-star when you have these top riders here, but Ken had ten clear, which was excellent. We are usually coming off a break this time of year with a lot of these horses, and it is nice to come here where there is a two-star this week and a three-star next week. You can gradually build them up." ~ Beezie Madden, 1st riding Breittling LS

"She is a great horse – really fast and competitive. She gave it her all, and in the end it wasn't quite quick enough today, but we will keep on trying. The track posed some good questions with some options, so you weren't locked into the numbers and it allowed us to adjust for our different horses." ~Andrew Ramsay, 2nd riding Cocq a Doodle

"As with most great horses, as they get older they tend to mature and develop in terms of their repertoire and ability, and she really showed that here. I could not be more proud of how she is jumping." ~Charlie Jacobs, 3rd riding Cassinja S

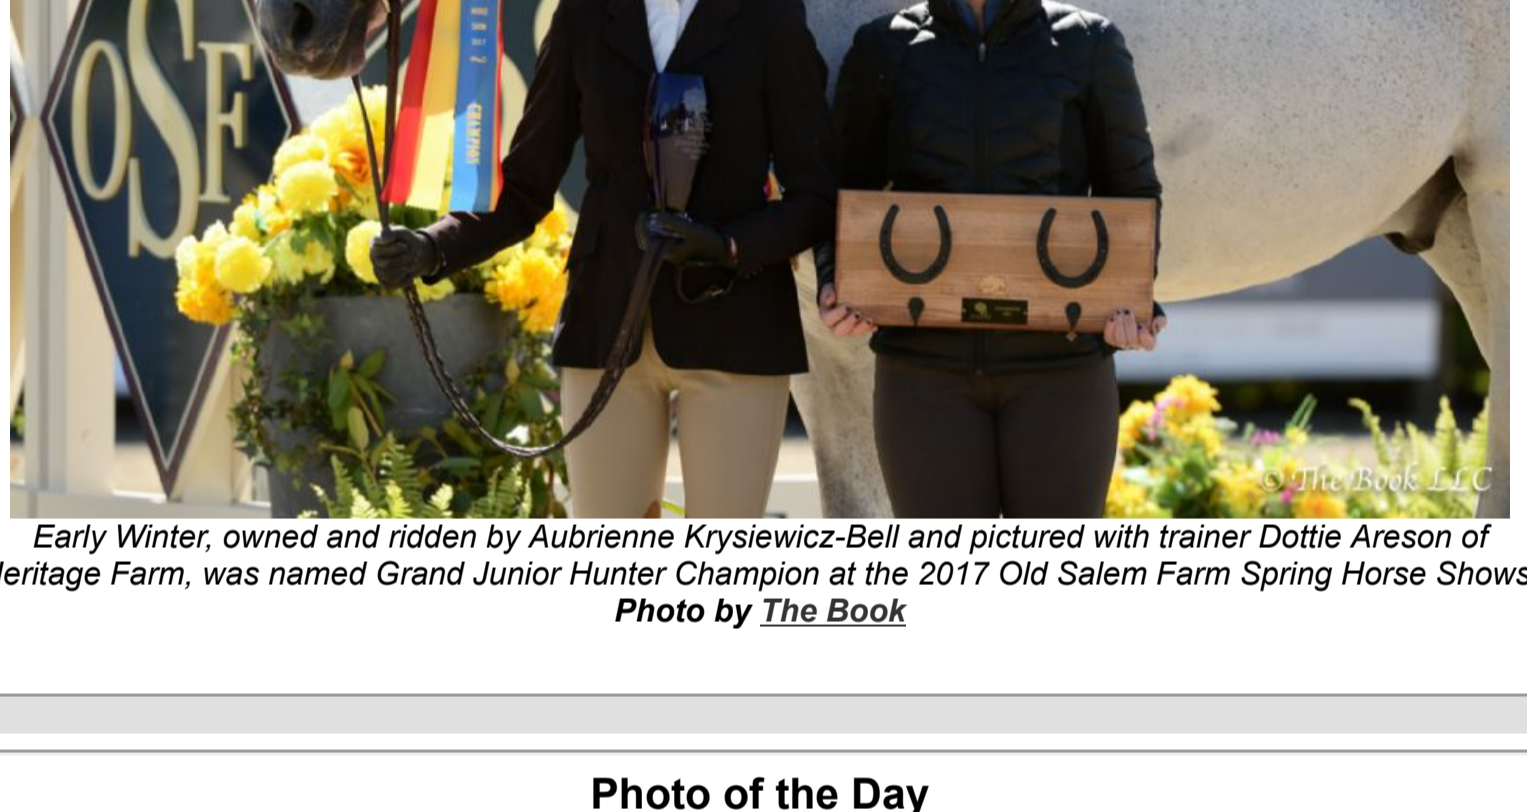

Early Winter Named Grand Junior Hunter Champion

Highlighting awards in the hunter rings at the Old Salem Farm Spring Horse Shows, Early Winter, owned and ridden by Aubrienne Krysiwicz-Bell, was named Grand Junior Hunter Champion. Krysiwicz-Bell and Early Winter, a 14-year-old Hanoverian gelding, won all three classes over fences, were first in the handy, and second under saddle to earn champion honors in the Large Junior Hunter 16-17 Division, and their first Grand Junior Hunter Championship together.

"He can do anything. We won the handy at Junior Hunter Finals together two years ago, went to Pessoa Medal Finals last year, and I have done schooling jumper classes with him. He is probably the horse that has improved my riding the most. He is so versatile, and I can get so much experience on him." ~Aubrienne Krysiwicz-Bell

Krysiwicz-Bell, 16, is a sophomore at Maryland School of New York at when she isn't training with Andre Dignelli and Patricia Griffith at Heritage Farm in Katonah, NY. She added Early Winter to her string as an equitation mount, but competes him in hunter and jumper classes as well.
