

2017 Royal Horse Show International Spotlight

Toronto, Ontario | November 3-12, 2017

Farrington spoils Ward's World Cup domination, while Quebec native Lamontagne is outstanding in his international division debut.

World number one KENT FARRINGTON of the US claimed the $150,000 Longines FEI World Cup Jumping Toronto aboard VOYEUR, a 15-year-old Dutch Warmblood gelding owned by Amalaya Investments. "[The Nusz family] have been a long-time supporter of my career and bought Voyeur for me with the hopes that he would be a championship horse," said Farrington of the horse that helped him end McLain Ward's eight-time reign of this event. "He has been every bit of it and more; he took me to my first Olympic Games where we got a team silver medal, was in the jump-off for individual gold, and has won a million grand prix events in between. Tonight, he really showed why he's special."

IAN MILLAR was the top Canadian in the Longines FEI World Cup Jumping, riding DIXSON to fifth place. He also took the $15,000 McKee International Jumper Challenge with VITTORIO 8.

HARDIN TOWELL (USA) claimed victory in the $87,000 GroupBy Big Ben Challenge riding LUCIFER V to close out the international division and help propel him to a tie for Leading International Rider with fellow American Beezie Madden.

While MCLAIN WARD (USA) failed to defend his World Cup title, he won the $35,000 International Accumulator with HH CALLAS (pictured) and placed fifth in the GroupBy Big Ben Challenge with HH AZUR.

Canadian Olympian AMY MILLAR of Perth, ON, won the $125,000 Canadian Show Jumping Championship for the first time in her career, outriding her dad, Ian, who was gunning for his 13th title in this event. Aboard HEROS, a 10-year-old Belgian Warmblood gelding owned by AMMO Investments, Amy logged three perfect performances over two days. "I just had to keep telling myself to ride well, jump clean, and stay focused," she explained. "Every time the thought of qualifying for international week or winning entered my mind, I pushed it away and thought, 'just concentrate on what you know; ride well and jump clean rounds' - and obviously it worked!"

(Below) JULIA MADIGAN and FARFELU DU PRINTEMPS won the $10,000 Jr/Am Royal Stake and were named Jr/Am Jumper champions.

MACKENZIE WRAY of Loretto, ON, won the 2017 Running Fox CET Medal National Final aboard CONTACT, an eight-year-old Holsteiner gelding owned by Makim Holdings Inc. Wray had competed in the 2016 CET Medal National Final, but finished outside of the top 10, so this victory was especially sweet, considering that as a business administration student at Hartpury College in England, she had minimal time to prepare. “I didn’t get to ride much; I was back from England for a day and then we came right to the Royal,” explained Wray, who is coached by Erynn Ballard. “I’ve been riding with Erynn for five years now, and I couldn’t imagine training with anyone else. She makes you ride the best you can.”

SAM WALKER, 15, from Nobleton, ON, won the JC Medal National Final aboard MIRACLE, a 12-year-old Holsteiner gelding owned by Marion Cunningham. “Equitation is a big focus this year; it’s a really important part in my riding right now and I look to continue that in Canada and in the States,” explained Walker, who is coached by his parents, Scott and Dee Walker, at their Forest Hill Training Centre in Caledon, ON, as well as Missy Clarke and John Brennan while he is competing in the US.

ERYNN BALLARD rode Christel Weller’s six-year-old mare ENCHANTED to win the $25,000 Knightwood Canadian Hunter Derby with an impressive overall score of 109 and be named Lorna Jean Guthrie Canadian Hunter Derby Champion. “She is a very special horse,” Ballard remarked of Enchanted, who was purchased in 2016 through Paul Hendrix’s Dutch Sport Horse Sales auction in The Netherlands. “She’s very sure of herself for a six-year-old. To go into that pressure situation and to do so well is great.” This was Ballard’s 29th year competing at The Royal.

OLIVIA IRVING and DAVENPORT were named A/O Hunter champions.

(Below/right) SOCIALITE carried SIDNEY JEFFERSON to the HORSE SPORT Adult Amateur Hunter 18-35 championship. The pair also won the Canadian-Bred Hunter Award, the Killer Tom High Score Hunter, and the Janet Cottrelle Memorial AM High Score.

DARCY HAYES and SAY WHEN took the Combined Working Hunter championship.

CLAIRE GOLDBERG rode BERLENA to clinch the Junior Working Hunter championship.

(Bottom/left) Medium Pony Hunter champions were AYLA TORIGIAN and MUD SLIDE. The flashy paint pony earned some notoriety during The Royal when it was discovered he had been rescued from possible slaughter and rehabilitated by Janet Rowe, who paid $75 for the underweight, neglected, lame colt before he eventually embarked on a successful career in the ring.

(Bottom/right) BLUERIDGE MOONBEAM and OMI ENKIN cleaned up in the pony division, earning the Small Pony Hunter championship, the Yvonne Collard Royal Grand Champion Hunter Pony award and the Rowfantina Collage Memorial Trophy.

JESSICA PHOENIX, 34, of Cannington, ON, claimed victory in the $20,000 Horseware Indoor Eventing Challenge aboard ABBEY GS, a 16-year-old Canadian-bred Trakehner mare owned by Charlotte Schickedanz. The pair posted the fastest penalty-free time of the night over the course set by Capt. Mark Phillips to move up from second place following the initial round and seal the win. "Abbey GS is such a fantastic jumper, and she's so brave and so bold that I couldn't have thought of a better horse to bring tonight," said Phoenix. "It's so fun to be able to demonstrate this incredible sport in front of this many spectators, which is something that we don't often get to do."

BRANDON MCMECHAN, 35, a chiropractor (human and equine) who lives in Toronto, ON, and OSCAR'S WILD, his eight-year-old Thoroughbred gelding, were the only other entry to jump clear both nights. They placed second overall.

US Olympian BOYD MARTIN and Christine Turner's 10-year-old Canadian Warmblood mare KYRA finished third in their Royal Horse Show debut, recovering from five penalty points on Friday night to jump clear on Saturday. "It's unbelievable; I had no idea that the Royal Agricultural Winter Fair was this awesome!" exclaimed Martin. "I would have come many years before had I known. I got to experience the food, and the cows, and the pigs, and the goats. I probably spent way more money than I should have in the trade fair, and then finally got to the riding."

For the second consecutive year, Rio Olympian MEGAN LANE of Loretto, ON, and her partner, CARAVELLA, swept the $20,000 Royal Invitational Dressage Cup, presented by Butternut Ridge. The 16-year-old Dutch Warmblood mare Lane co-owns with her mother, Cathy, and sister, Kelsey, scored 68.833% in the Grand Prix and then 72.208% in the Freestyle, to a routine designed by Joost Peters of the Netherlands. "It's a tricky choreography, and Caravella was great!" said Lane, 26. "I love it here. The Canadian crowds are great to ride for; they're very supportive, yet respectful, of dressage."

Crowd favourite JACQUELINE BROOKS of Mount Albert, ON, took second place in the $20,000 Royal Invitational Dressage riding D NIRO, her 2012 London Olympics partner, an 18-year-old Swedish Warmblood gelding owned by Mary Brooks and Brookhaven Dressage Inc. The pair fired up the fans with a brand new Freestyle choreography to score 72.208%.

ROBERT K. IRVING of Windhaven Farm in Moncton, NB, was named 2017 Dressage Owner of the Year in recognition of the consistent and impressive results achieved by the farm's elite dressage horses, including Donnatella, Soccer City, Dio Mio, Florencia 22, Hudson 18, and more recently DEGAS 12 (pictured) and Arthur, both ridden by his wife, JILL IRVING. "I am so thrilled that my biggest supporter has received recognition for his support in our sport," said Jill. "I would not have such amazing horses and the success I've had without his tireless encouragement."

Winner of the Governor General's Cup was NOIR DE NOIR (Cabardino x Penny Black V), owned by ULLA BROOKS and shown by GARRY ROQUE. The filly, whose barn name is Lola, also placed second in the Lieutenant Governor's Cup, ridden by Kristjan Good. Lola's full sister, Cafe Noir ("Mocca"), won the LG Cup and was second in the GG Cup five years ago.

Brooks has been breeding Canadian Sport Horses since 2008 at her Wyndalways Farm in Caledon, ON. Her good mare Penny Black is a British Sport Horse bred in England by the eventing stallion Washington Postman, who was ridden by Matt Ryan. Cafe Noir was Penny Black's first foal. "Penny Black has been an absolute one-in-a-million. She did everything for me and now her babies are doing the same," said Brooks, who shows Cafe Noir, who was OHJA Low Ad/Am Hunter champion in 2016 and Low A/O Hunter in 2017.

Of the lovely prospect Noir de Noir, she says, "She is easy, level-headed, perfect, and wants to do everything you ask." She hopes Lola follows in the hoofsteps of her big sister. "We're hoping for a hunter, but we haven't jumped her yet; we were waiting until after the Cups."

SHAWNA RINZLER-JOHNSTON had just one wish for the Cup classes – that her three-year-old homebred mare, BELLPHINA (Bon Balou x More Fun) would earn a ribbon. "I was amazed when she pinned third in the Governor General's class. When she got called in the Lieutenant Governor's class in first, I was so shocked I had tears running down my face," said Rinzler-Johnson, who has a small breeding operation at her Carmaz Stables in Moncton, NB. Bellphina's dam More Fun, who passed away in the spring, had been Rinzler's show hunter and had won numerous high-point titles in the Maritimes. Bellphina had been stabled with Rinzler-Johnston's friend Willa Gauthier at Someday Farm in Ontario since Thanksgiving and Marti Embree prepared and rode her at the Royal. "Marti did a great job of getting her conditioning up to the level it needed to be. With three kids, I wouldn't be able to dedicate the time Bella needed to be ready. It was a great decision."
