

In the News Continued

Jay Duke conducting a clinic with the Grasslands Hunter Jumper Association in Moose Jaw, Saskatchewan
Photo courtesy of Grasslands Hunter Jumper Association

Canadian Equestrian Team veteran-turned-clinician Jay Duke is making teaching lessons easier with Jay Duke Equestrian's Virtual Lesson Subscription service. Subscribers to Jay's lesson plans receive access to his extensive library of exercises and tips to make the most of any lesson experience at varying levels. Subscriptions vary from à la carte options to weekly deliveries throughout a full year. Mobile-friendly lesson plans are delivered weekly via e-mail and ready to go straight to the ring. A portion of all proceeds will be donated to JustWorld International and Uryadi's Village charities. For more information on Jay Duke and his lesson plan subscription service, visit jayduke.com.

George Morris will give in-ring clinics for the public at the International Omaha.
Photo by Ken Kraus

Following its stunning production of the FEI World Cup Finals last spring, the Omaha Equestrian Foundation (OEF) has big plans for the International Omaha horse show next April including in-ring clinics for the public by no less than George Morris in show jumping and German Olympic gold medalist Hubertus Schmidt in dressage. Isabell Werth did one of these during last spring's World Cup and it was so well received that the folks in Omaha decided to continue the concept. "We are committed to the development of equestrian sport in the Midwest and this is a great way to help make that happen," said OEF chairman Lisa Roskens.

Emma Butchard and Brasil clear the Palm Beach Equine Clinic fence during the Winter Equestrian Festival.

Photo by Jump Media

Palm Beach Equine Clinic (PBEC) of Wellington, Florida, is celebrating 20 years as the official veterinary clinic of the Winter Equestrian Festival (WEF). At the 2018 WEF and Adequan® Global Dressage Festival, PBEC is the go-to medical center for some of the world's top equine athletes. With 30 years of unwavering commitment to caring for sport horses in all disciplines, PBEC offers an internationally renowned facility on Pierson Road, just down the street from the Palm Beach International Equestrian Center. Additionally, a state-of-the-art annex facility is conveniently located on-site at WEF throughout the duration of the winter season. PBEC features a staff of 40 veterinarians, including three board-certified surgeons and some of the world's best board specialists, all of whom are experts in their respective fields. To make Palm Beach Equine Clinic a part of your team this winter, visit www.equineclinic.com or call 561-793-1599.

Martha Jolicoeur with Margie Engle, Leading Lady

Photo by Sportfot

Prominent real estate broker Martha W. Jolicoeur of Wellington, Florida, will return as a sponsor of the 2018 Winter Equestrian Festival, presenting the coveted Leading Lady

Rider Award each week. Created in memory of fellow realtor and horsewoman Dale Lawler, the award honors the highest ranked female competitor based on points earned in the WEF Challenge Cup Series and grand prix events each week. For more information on Martha and her team of experienced professionals, or to view her inventory of listings, visit marthasproperties.com or find her on Facebook and Instagram.

Show News

Beezie Madden and Hardin Towell

Photo by Ben Radvanyi

In an unusual tie, Hardin Towell and four-time U.S. Olympic medalist Beezie Madden shared the Leading International Rider title at the Royal Horse Show, held as part of the 95th Royal Agricultural Winter Fair in Toronto, Canada. Beezie claimed victories in the $35,000 Brickenden Trophy and the $50,000 Weston Canadian Open, while Hardin won the $35,000 Jolera International Jumper class as well as the $87,000 GroupBy Big Ben Challenge in front of a sold-out crowd on closing night.