

In the News Continued

Bre Avery

Bre Avery is a line of vibrant equestrian accessories and apparel based in New York City. The brand harnesses digital printing to ensure every piece in the line is created with virtually no waste of ink, materials, water or electricity. All products are handmade or printed in North America using the finest textiles and an eco-friendly process. Additionally, a percentage of all proceeds are donated to animal rescues.

Mark Your Calendar

Andy Kocher and Artemise du Housoit competing on the Longines Masters tour
Photo by Laurent Vu for EEM

Tickets are now on sale for the first Longines Masters of New York, which makes its debut from April 26–29, 2018, at NYCB Live, Home of the Nassau Veterans Memorial Coliseum. Featured events include the one-of-a-kind Longines Speed Challenge, the innovative Riders Masters Cup, and the Longines Grand Prix of New York, treating ticket-holders to first-class international show jumping sport. For young riders and fans alike, it is not too late to join the Masters Squad! Masters Squad Captains earn prizes based on the amount of tickets sold, including the Longines Masters official posters series, saddle pads, an invitation to the Masters Squad BBQ with a five-star rider and even a group clinic! For details on tickets and the Masters Squad, visit www.LonginesMasters.com.

DO YOU HAVE NEWS FOR INGATE? Send it to editor@sidelinesnews.com

Show News

Margie Engle (center) with Martha Jolicoeur (right) and Jill Townsend
Photo by Anne Gittins Photography

Leading South Florida real estate broker Martha W. Jolicoeur presented U.S. Olympian Margie Engle with the Leading Lady Rider Award during the CSI4* Holiday & Horses tournament at the Palm Beach International Equestrian Center in Wellington, Florida. Margie and her mount, Royce, placed second in the $216,000 CSI4* Grand Prix to seal the title. Martha will also present the weekly Martha Jolicoeur Leading Lady Rider Award throughout the 12-week Winter Equestrian Festival (WEF) running January 10 through April 1. Given in memory of fellow realtor and horsewoman Dale Lawler, the award is presented to the high-score female rider based on performances in the weekly WEF Challenge Cup Series and grand prix events. In addition, the cumulative highest-scoring lady rider over the course of the 12 weeks will be presented with the Overall WEF Leading Lady Rider Award at the completion of the 2018 WEF.

Emanuel Andrade and Reus de la Nutria
Photo by Luis Barbosa

Venezuela's Emanuel Andrade came home with plenty of hardware from the recent Bolivarian Games in Santa Marta, Colombia. Held every four years, the 18th edition of the Bolivarian Games saw Emanuel win medals in all three events riding Reus de la Nutria, his 12-year old Selle Francais mare. In the opening speed round, Emanuel claimed the individual silver medal, followed by a team bronze in the next day's Nations' Cup-style competition. In the individual final, the 21-year-old once again landed on the podium, this time taking the bronze medal. Based in Wellington, Florida, Emanuel will be a force to be reckoned with at the Winter Equestrian Festival, where, despite his young age, he earned the Leading Jumper Rider title in both 2013 and 2014.

Beach Polo World Cup

Beach Polo World Cup, the world's largest Beach Polo tournament, made its official return to the sands of South Beach at the beginning of January. Polo enthusiasts gathered at W South Beach to witness the resurgence of the world-class polo extravaganza. The four-day event was bigger and better than ever, with a brand-new layout, some of the best players and unprecedented daily activities. The event featured three days of polo matches with six competing teams made up of some of the world's top players, including Mike Azzaro, Ricardo Mansur, Nacho Gonzalez and Juan Bollini. The tournament also hosted a women's cup on Saturday featuring two female teams along with a charity match on Sunday supporting Beach Polo's official charity partner, The Bass Museum.

Condolences

Pauline Russell of LyNard Hills Farm in Columbus, North Carolina, passed away on January 1, 2018. Originally from England, she is survived by a large family including her husband, Vick Russell. Pauline was a renowned horsewoman with many accolades, including holding the World Record in the Quarter Horse 150 Yard Sprint with 7.02 seconds, being awarded Canadian Trainer of the Year and organizing the first-ever $100,000 show jumping event in North America. Pauline trained many of the world's top hunter-jumper equestrians. She proudly became an American citizen in July 2017.