McLain Ward (USA) claimed the ninth Royal Horse Show World Cup title of his career when he and the 10-year-old mare HH Gigi's Girl scored victory in the $205,000 Longines FEI Jumping World Cup in its new Saturday night time slot to close out the Royal Horse Show. The two-time Olympic team gold medalist topped a 21-horse field over tracks set by 2018 WEG course designer Alan Wade of Ireland. "This was a gymnastics test, which is what courses are now at the highest level," said Ward, 43, who also earned Leading International Rider honours. "I think of this as a second home. As you saw, we had a sold-out crowd, and I'm thrilled to be part of it."

Israel's Daniel Bluman, 28, won the $85,000 GroupBy "Big Ben" Challenge riding Ladrano Z, a 10-year-old Zangersheide gelding - the last and fastest in the exciting 11-horse jumpoff. "I won by a fraction of a second - I got lucky," he admitted, adding, "We go to a lot of competitions, but when you're at a show like this, every class you compete in, you want to perform. Forget about the prize money, forget about the world ranking points, forget about anything else; you just want to be the best that you can be for the crowd. That's what makes it fun!"

McLain Ward also raced to victory riding Tradition de la Roque in the $50,000 Weston Canadian Open, just edging Canada's Kean White and Leilani. "The environment here is brilliant," enthused Ward. "This is a crowd that really understands the sport and appreciates the animals. People make an effort to dress up and make it an important evening."

Captain Brian Cournane (IRL) won the $36,000 Brickenden Trophy International Jumpers riding Penelope Cruz, a 10-year-old Irish Sport Horse mare acquired from fellow Irishman Darragh Kerins a year ago. While Cournane is new to the Royal, he's very familiar with course designer Alan Wade. "It's very funny; when I was a kid doing hunter trials in Ireland, I was 16 or 17 and Alan was building the courses back then," said Cournane, 36. "Now we're at The Royal and he's building! It's incredible."

Ali Ramsay of Victoria, BC, had a phenomenal Royal, with the first clear round of the evening in the $205,000 Longines FEI Jumping World Cup and a quick and fault-free jump-off trip to finish third aboard Hermelien vd Hooghoeve. "I think my horse did everything I asked of her," said Ramsay; the pair also placed 8th in the Big Ben Challenge on Thursday evening. Ramsay, 26, first attended the Royal Horse Show in 2012 when she won the Running Fox CET Medal Final.

Kean White was named Leading Canadian Rider, while his ride Leilani, an eight-year-old grey Oldenburg mare owned by Lisa Marie Gauthier and Angelstone Farm, earned the title of All Canadian Cup Leading Canadian-Owned Horse.

Erynn Ballard (right) received the Whitaker Award from Willa Gauthier, chair of the Royal Horse Show, as the top FEI-ranked Canadian rider competing in the international division at the Royal, although she had some terrible luck when she broke her hand against J'Adore Van Het Klinkhof's neck on the opening night of international competition.

Pony Jumper Challenge - CH: Beaverwood's Halo, Kilby Brunner Deforest; RES: Ever So Clever, Grace Stevenson

Nicole Walker of Aurora, ON, was crowned the winner of the $125,000 Canadian Show Jumping Championship after incurring just one rail and a single time fault over two days and three Alan Wade-designed courses aboard Falco van Spieveld, her 13-year-old Belgian Warmblood gelding. "It was definitely a pressure situation, because there was really no room for error," said Walker, who was the U25 champion here in 2017. "This is a very humbling sport, so I never expected [to win], but we were hopeful and positive, and the horse has been feeling amazing all week, so I'm glad we could pull it off."

(Right) Jordan Macpherson, 29, of Toronto, ON, claimed the 1.40m Junior/Amateur Jumping Championship title aboard Fiestamunde, an eight-year-old Dutch Warmblood mare owned by Sved Stables. The pair steadily improved during the show, placing eighth in the opening welcome class, third in the speed class and winning the stake in the mare's first indoor event. "It's always great to win, but it's even better when you win at The Royal," said Macpherson, who trains with the Millar family. "My goal is to move her up and compete in the Canadian Show Jumping Championship next year. She's a pretty amazing horse and I'm really lucky to have her."

Julia Madigan, 22, of Vancouver, BC, claimed the Uplands Under 25 National Championship aboard Farfelu du Printemps, a 13-year-old Belgian Warmblood gelding owned by her father, John Madigan. The pair, who are coached by Jill Henselwood, also took the 1.40m Junior/Amateur Jumping Championship in 2017. "I think the U25 is a bit more competitive and a bit bigger than the Junior/Amateur, so it's an extra boost for me," said Madigan, who is a full-time student in her final year of mechanical engineering at Queen's University in Kingston, ON.

Kilby Brunner Deforest, 14, of Hillsburgh, ON, and Beaverwood's Halo jumped to victory in the $5,000 MarBill Hill Farm Royal Pony Jumper Final to take the division championship. "This is my fifth time competing in the pony jumpers at The Royal," said Brunner Deforest, who was reserve champion in 2016 and 2017. "This is a new pony for me; she is very fast and really good in the turns," she said of the 14-year-old mare owned by her mother, Kirsten Brunner. "She's very confident and handled the noise and the [Coca-Cola Coliseum] very well. I love coming here and competing over a few days in front of a big crowd."

HUNTER DERBIES & EQUITATION

(Left) Isabelle Lapierre of Levis, QC, won back-to-back classes at the Royal to claim the 2018 Canadian Hunter Derby Series National Championship title aboard Carrera S. “To win is a dream, so maybe the best thing now is to retire from doing hunter derbies,” Lapierre joked after her victory. The 39-year-old trains hunters and jumpers at Les Écuries de la Chaudière and shook things up in 2017 by claiming two FEI World Cup Qualifiers.

(Bottom/left) Miranda Burruano, 18, of Orchard Park, NY won the 2018 Jump Canada Medal National Final aboard Quixote. This dual citizen who currently lives in Canada and is in her freshman year in arts and sciences at the University of Guelph has been training with Ainsley and Courtney Vince of Burlington, ON, for the past five years. “They are really funny and are always so positive and supportive,” said Miranda. “I really didn’t show that much this year [due to illness], so to prepare for the Final I just tried to get as much riding in as possible and they helped me get on my ‘A’ game.”

(Bottom/right) Sam Walker, 16, of Nobleton, ON, had an incredible run in the autumn of 2018, first winning the ASPCA Maclay Championship at the National Horse Show in Lexington, KY, riding Waldo on Nov. 4, then clinching the Running Fox CET Medal and finishing as reserve champion in the Jump Canada Medal National Final at the Royal aboard Willem. “It feels a little bit surreal!” said Walker, who trains with his parents, Scott and Dee Walker, and John Brennan and Missy Clark when in the US. “He was amazing this week; I couldn’t be happier with how he performed.”

- $15,000 Braeburn Farms Canadian Hunter Derby - 1. Carrera S, Isabelle Lapierre (113); 2. Enchanted, Erynn Ballard (100); 3. Stakkato Grande W, Kristjan Good (99)

EVENTING & DRESSAGE

Horseware Indoor Eventing Challenge

1. Glendening Avis, Lauren Kieffer (USA)
2. Oscar's Wild, Brandon McMechan (CAN)
3. Totally Frank, Kendal Lehari (CAN)
4. Honor Me, Lisa Marie Fergusson (CAN)
5. Serendipity, Colleen Loach (CAN)

Dressage Derby

Round 1

1. Esther Mortimer (GTM), Ribot 68.897%
2. Adrienne Lyle (USA), Ribot 72.574%
3. Jaimy Irwin (CAN), Adajio 66.103%
4. Tom Dvorak (CAN), Adajio 69.338%

Round 2

1. Adrienne Lyle (USA), Daedalus 69.559%
2. Tom Dvorak (CAN), Daedalus 66.912%

Toronto's Brandon McMechan finished second aboard Oscar's Wild, his nine-year-old Thoroughbred gelding. The pair also finished second in this popular event in 2017.

Kendal Lehari of Uxbridge, ON – a familiar face in this event since its inception – rode her Thoroughbred gelding Totally Frank to third place.

US Olympian Lauren Kieffer made her Royal Horse Show debut (and indoor eventing debut) a winning one, claiming victory in the $20,000 Horseware Indoor Eventing Challenge. She rode Glendening Avis, a 13-year-old buckskin Canadian Sport Horse mare owned by Callie Evans, over courses set by Mark Phillips. "The mare is just incredible; she tries her guts out. It's very rare that you hop on something and sync together so quickly," said Kieffer. "The format is fun; it's energetic. If it gets one person to leave here and go Google 'eventing' and get into it, then it did its purpose."

BEN RADVANYI PHOTOS

The inaugural Dressage Derby featured Esther Mortimer (GUA) and Adrienne Lyle (USA) facing off against Canadians Tom Dvorak and Jaimey Irwin in a unique new knock-out style format on Dressage Night, Nov. 6. The exhibition competition challenged riders to perform a Prix St. Georges-level test on a horse they'd never ridden before after just five minutes' warmup. It was Lyle (pictured aboard her second ride, Daedalus) who edged Dvorak in the second round and became the inaugural champion. "They are all really incredible riders and it was a really close competition," said Lyle. "It's a great way to showcase top riders without having the expense of shipping a lot of horses in."

Tom Dvorak, shown aboard his first ride, Adajio, was the runner-up in the Dressage Derby premiere.

Fan favourites Jacqueline Brooks and D Niro performed one last Freestyle at the Royal Horse Show during an emotional and heart-warming performance to honour the 19-year-old Swedish Warmblood gelding, who will now officially enjoy retirement.

Fresh off their appearance at the 2018 FEI World Equestrian Games in Tryon in September, Brittany Fraser-Beaulieu of Saint Bruno, QC, and All In, her 13-year-old Dutch Warmblood gelding, dazzled the crowd with an intricate Freestyle performance.

TB Grand Champion: Townsend

With chrome, a commanding presence and correct conformation, Canadian Sport Horse Karamel K (Redwine x Primadonna K) brought Ashland Farm of Ashton, ON, its third Governor General's Cup win, following in the hoofsteps of Popeye K in 2000 and Roman K in 2005. The flashy chestnut filly's dam was Popeye K's first foal and has the topline and hip of her grandsire, and the head, neck and movement of her sire, Redwine, according to Paul Morgan, who operates Ashland Farm with Darlene Tierney, where Redwine stands. In the past, Morgan and Tierney left Cup handling duties to pro Ronnie Davidson; this year, Tierney took on the task. It was an up-and-down year at line shows as Tierney struggled with how to bring out the mare's best trot. She showed Karamel K to second place at Devon this year before handling the mare for her Cup win. "Naturally, Darlene was over the moon," says Morgan. Karamel K was also named CSH Senior Champion Filly. ~ Tracy Hanes

After Sullivan GS was backed in July, 2018, owner/breeder Alanna Parker of Riguard, Quebec, suspected she had a Lieutenant Governor's Cup contender on her hands due to his exceptional movement and brain. Her hunch was confirmed by Sandra Laprise, owner of his sire, Sir Wanabi. With 18-year-old rider Teha Lapointe aboard, the 17.2 HH Canadian Sport Horse gelding, who hadn't attended any qualifiers, took top spot in the LG Cup at the Royal. Although confident the horse would finish in the top 10, the win was a complete surprise to Parker. "This was our first time competing in this class with a homebred, so it was very emotional hearing his name over the loudspeaker," she said. 'Little Bumper' as he is known is out of Paddy's Batch, a Rio Grande mare that had a successful dressage career before retiring as a broodmare that Parker purchased from Ontario Elite Hunter Sales. Sullivan GS will have the winter off to mature before being restarted under saddle in the spring. ~ Tracy Hanes

Braecrest Covergirl, a two-year-old chestnut filly (Checkmate x Romantic Pursuit) owned by Krista Schneider and Zoey Rus and handled by Lisa Carswell was named CSHA Grand Champion.
