Burlington Capital, a long-term partner with the Omaha Equestrian Foundation (OEF), has signed on as the title sponsor of its International Omaha equestrian event. The 2019 Burlington Capital International Omaha is set for April 4-7 at the CHI Health Center Omaha Arena & Convention Center in Omaha, Nebraska. The top-class show includes a $100,000 Jumping Grand Prix, $100,000 InIt2WinIt Speed Jumping Series Final and a $50,000 Dressage Team Challenge featuring grand prix, freestyle, youth and amateur riders. New for 2019, the event has expanded to include open jumper classes and lower-level dressage classes so riders can earn qualifying scores for Regionals. Thanks to Burlington Capital, it's going to be quite a show this year!

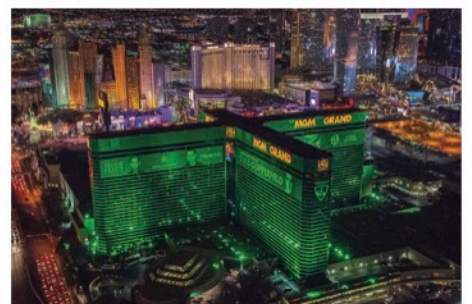

Continuing its tradition of supporting charities that serve the local community and support equine organizations, the Land Rover Kentucky Three-Day Event has named the Bluegrass Land Conservancy (BLC) as its 2019 Official Charity. BLC is the largest accredited land trust in Kentucky and was formed to protect the land in Kentucky's Bluegrass Region through permanent conservation easements. Land Rover Kentucky returns to the Kentucky Horse Park April 25-28, and will host several fundraising events during the exciting competition. A portion of proceeds, as well as a portion of ticket sales from the Invitational CSI³* Show Jumping Grand Prix being held alongside the event, will go to the Official Charity, adding to what is already the "Best Weekend All Year!"
