

Congratulations Continued

show manager and legendary announcer, Peter Doubleday, Olympic rider and coach and the first president of the USET, Colonel John W. "Gyp" Wofford, and Bold Minstrel, the only horse in history to win medals for the U.S. at the Pan American Games in two different disciplines. The four will be honored at the Hall of Fame's annual induction ceremony at the Devon Horse Show in May. Induction into the Show Jumping Hall of Fame is an honor bestowed upon select individuals whose contributions to the sport have set them apart and whose influence has had a significant impact on the sport of show jumping and the equestrian community.

Sloane Coles

Sloane Coles, a grand prix show jumper and all-conference collegiate lacrosse player, has been elected to the Foxcroft School Sports Hall of Fame. The 2007 Foxcroft graduate will become the 11th member inducted into the Hall of Fame at the all-girls' boarding and day school. Sloan, who operates Spring Ledge LLC, a hunter-jumper training and teaching facility in The Plains, Virginia, was elected by a panel of eight voters that includes former and current Foxcroft athletic directors and coaches and alumnae, including two members of the Hall of Fame.

Leading South Florida real estate broker Martha Jolicoeur was named the No. 1 Florida Agent at the Douglas Elliman Real Estate annual awards celebration, The Ellies, held in Uncasville, Connecticut. Based in Wellington, Florida, Martha was the top Florida agent based on Gross

Commission Income (GCI) thanks to consistent and impressive sales of farm properties, homes and condos within the equestrian community and beyond. "Being named top agent in Florida is an incredible honor and a testament to loyal clients and my dedicated team, who have consistently supported me throughout my career," said Martha, who also joined the prestigious Pinnacle Club this year. "Wellington's concentration of equestrians from North America and around the world who call Florida a temporary or permanent home makes for an exciting environment to work within. As a rider myself, being able to combine my two passions of horses and real estate is a dream. Success is a journey, not a destination, and I have really enjoyed the journey."

The Vermont Summer Festival, which returns to Harold Beebe Farm in East Dorset, Vermont, for six straight weeks of hunter, jumper and equitation competition July 2–August 11, has an exciting lineup of international course designers for the circuit. Course designers for the 2019 season include Gerry Briggs (USA), Manuel Esparza (MEX), Paul Jewell (USA), Ken Krome (USA), Michel Vaillancourt (CAN) and Alan Wade (IRL). "I always enjoy coming back to Vermont," said Paul, a rider himself who has been designing courses at the Vermont Summer Festival since he first became a "R" course designer. "The atmosphere in Vermont is nice because I can really personalize the courses and get them exactly like I want for each class. The jump crew and the jumps themselves are top notch." In addition to building for the pinnacle events of the Vermont Summer Festival, course designers have the opportunity to work with Kruse Cushion Ride (KCR) footing. The surface was installed during an extensive property and footing upgrade that took place at Harold Beebe Farm in 2015 and was again refreshed in 2018.
