

In the News

Sue Schlegel, a longtime team member of Olympic Gold Medalist Beezie Madden and the John Madden Sales Inc. team, was presented the special Grooms Award for her care of Garant, Beezie's up-and-coming 8-year-old who won the $210,000 Longines FEI Jumping World Cup New York. For her care and dedication to Garant, Sue received a $150 gift certificate from The Grooms Award, Ltd., together with an embroidered bag, compliments of SmartPak, containing a variety of gifts including Bug Off repellent, a Boy-O-Boy Bridleworks belt, an American Gold Cup vest and shirt, Equine Flavor Fix, Farrier's Fix Hoof oil, Sterling Essentials tack cleaner and Limber Up from Back on Track.

Split Rock Jumping Tour founder and CEO Derek Braun

The Split Rock Jumping Tour's new Fort Worth International CSI4*-W has been selected as one of just eight events in the newly-formatted Longines FEI Jumping World Cup™ Series' North American League (NAL). The Fort Worth International CSI4*-W will join five other U.S. events plus one in Canada and one in Mexico for the 2020–2021 through 2022–2023 seasons. "I'm so excited to announce our collaboration with Erin Davis-Heineking for the Fort Worth International CSI4*-W," said Derek Braun, founder and CEO of the Split Rock Jumping Tour. "I want to thank the entire Split Rock team and everyone else who has supported our efforts over the last five years for making this possible. Texas deserves a world-class event and we are going to do all we can to make this one of the best equestrian events in America!"

Palm Beach Equine Clinic
Photo by Erin Gilmore

Palm Beach Equine Clinic (PBEC), a world-renowned equine veterinary clinic located in the heart of Wellington, Florida, is proud to unveil its newly redesigned website. At EquineClinic.com, visitors can meet the veterinarians of PBEC, including board-certified surgeons, imaging specialists, internal medicine specialists, and more. EquineClinic.com showcases the wide array of offerings at PBEC, which includes state-of-the-art imaging services such as nuclear scintigraphy (bone scan), computed tomography (CT) and standing magnetic resonance imaging (MRI), as well as ultrasonography and digital radiography. Visitors to the new site can explore the PBEC surgical suite, learn about the standing surgical options and meet some of the surgical residents who call PBEC home. In addition, EquineClinic.com is host to a wealth of horse health tips, news on innovative treatments, and a source for horse care information. Visit EquineClinic.com to learn more.

Beezie Madden and Breiling LS
Photo by Shawn McMillen Photography

The Washington International Horse Show (WIHS), held annually at Capital One Arena in the heart of Washington, D.C., has renewed its partnership with Longines, title sponsor of the Longines FEI Jumping World Cup™ Washington. WIHS, a coveted indoor event for more than 60 years, has hosted the Longines FEI Jumping World Cup™ Washington since 2015. Beginning with the 2020–2021 season, WIHS will be one of only eight events in the newly restructured Longines FEI Jumping World Cup™ North American League. The event's selection guarantees the Longines FEI Jumping World Cup™ Washington as part of the Longines FEI Jumping World Cup™ North American League for the 2020–2021, 2021–2022 and 2022–2023 seasons.

"The World Cup designation is very, very important to us and we are very pleased to see this part of the event continue," said WIHS President Victoria Lowell. "It's a very historic and special event. We work very hard to make it the best show possible."

WIHS continued a longstanding tradition as one of the world's most celebrated indoor horse shows in 2019 and again hosted the $136,300 Longines FEI Jumping World Cup™

Washington for the President's Cup, presented by Events DC, with coveted qualifying points on offer for the 2020 Longines FEI Jumping World Cup™ Final taking place in Las Vegas, Nevada, in April. Additionally, WIHS welcomed qualified hunter, jumper, equitation and pony riders from across the nation and celebrated year-end titles, including the coveted Lindsay Maxwell Charitable Fund WIHS Equitation Finals.

Show News

Show Jumping Hall of Fame Executive Director Marty Bauman, right, presents the Style of Riding award to Ned Cunniffe, center.

Ned Cunniffe was awarded the Show Jumping Hall of Fame Style of Riding Award at the 2019 Hampton Classic Horse Show. The Style of Riding Award is presented to the Junior Jumper rider who best exemplifies the American style of equitation, as modeled by show jumping Hall of Famers such as Conrad Homfeld and Joe Fargis. Ned, who is 18 years old and trains with top Irish rider Paul O'Shea, earned several top placings during the prestigious Hampton Classic, including sixth place aboard Buckle Up in the $25,000 Show Jumping Hall of Fame Show Jumping Derby.

The North American League (NAL) has concluded its 2018–19 season and is pleased to announce the winners of its five divisions in the National and West Coast standings. The divisions in both cases were extremely competitive this season, with riders clearly focused on qualifying to compete at the National and West Coast Finals.

The winners of the five divisions in the 2019 NAL National standings are:

- Stephanie King of St. Augustine, Florida, and Co-Starr in the Adult Jumper Division Presented by SmartPak with 5,983 points
- Caia Watridge of St. Augustine, Florida, and Kalle in the Children's Jumper Division Presented by EquiFit with 3,982 points
- Brianne Link of Sayville, New York, and Wednesday Mornin in the Low Junior/Amateur Jumper Division Presented by HorseFlight with 11,579 points