

THE ROYAL HORSE SHOW, 97TH ROYAL AGRICULTURAL WINTER FAIR - TORONTO, ON, CANADA

1. Bertram Allen (IRE) aboard GK Casper celebrates after topping a four-horse jump-off to win the $210,000 Longines FEI Jumping World Cup™ Toronto 2. The iconic Royal Canadian Mounted Police (RCMP) Musical Ride is a highlight of The Royal Horse Show's opening weekend 3. Brian Moggre (USA), 18, making his final junior year count by placing 3rd in the Longines FEI Jumping World Cup™ Toronto riding MTM Vivre le Reve 4. Canadian Olympian Beth Underhill and Count Me In enjoy their victory gallop after topping the $125,000 Henry Equestrian Canadian Show Jumping Championship 5. U.S. Olympian Margie Engle (center) claimed the inaugural Martha Jolicoeur Leading Lady Rider Award from the Wellington, FL-based realtor and her fiancé, Dr. Stephen Norton 6. Eric Lamaze's Fine Lady 5, recipient of the Leading Canadian Horse Award, pictured with groom Kaytlyn Brown 7. Artisan Farm's Carlene Ziegler, owner of Fine Lady 5, with rider Eric Lamaze, recipient of the Leading International Rider and Leading Canadian Rider titles

8. Course designer for this year's Royal Horse Show, Michel Vaillancourt (right) has a little fun seeing how fellow Canadian course designer Dave Ballard measures up! 9. Reigning European Championship team gold and individual bronze medalist Jos Verlooy of Belgium finishes runner-up in the Longines FEI Jumping World Cup™ Toronto aboard Igor 10. The impressive line-up of finalists in the Royal Championship Six Horse Hitch, won by Ross Honsberger of Jackson Fork Ranch Percherons in Wyoming 11. Eric Lamaze addresses the crowd during a special retirement ceremony for 10-time Canadian Olympian Ian Millar prior to the $85,000 Big Ben International Challenge, named for Millar's most famous mount 12. Georgina Bloomberg of the U.S. competes with Chameur 137 in front of a sold-out Coca-Cola Coliseum in the Longines FEI Jumping World Cup™ Toronto