Cold weather is quickly approaching, so follow these tips from BarnManager to ensure you're ready for the change of season.

1. Organize your blankets. Cold nights will start creeping in before you know it, so make sure each horse's lightweight sheet is identified and cleaned, especially those that may be clipped. Keep tabs on the temperature lows each night as summer begins to turn into fall so you don't lose sight of the nights when your horses may need light blanketing. Also have the heavier blankets ready to go so winter doesn't sneak up on you and leave you unprepared.
