

Bringing you news, advice, and tools to improve your barn management experience

On the Blog

Our trainers do so much for us, so it's our time to give back to them. Say thank you for their endless hours spent devoted to you, your horse, and all they do to keep things running smoothly by gifting them something meaningful. Horse trainers can often be difficult to shop for, but here are some ideas to brighten their holiday season and help show your gratitude for everything they've done for you throughout the past year.

1. Gift cards. You can never go wrong by giving a gift card and allowing your trainer to purchase whatever he or she truly needs or wants. Better yet, support a small business by choosing a local tack shop that may be struggling.

2. Customized barn gear. This one takes a little more planning, but gear with the barn or business's logo would make a truly special gift for your trainer.

TIP OF THE MONTH

#BarnManagerTip

Use empty milk cartons with salt to prevent water troughs from freezing over

Tis the season for frozen water troughs! Put five tablespoons of salt and a small amount of water in a recycled plastic bottle or milk carton. Place it in your bucket or trough to prevent the water from freezing up when the temperatures hit their lowest points.
