Mark Bluman of Bluman Equestrian in Wellington, FL, captured the win in the $75,000 WEC Grand Prix 1.50m on Saturday, January 23, aboard Daniel Bluman's Mylords Bandit Del Keroytin. "It is my first time here at World Equestrian Center – Ocala," said Bluman. "I'm very impressed and very happy that we have such a facility in Florida. I'm originally from Wellington, and I came here just to see it. I want to thank the Roberts family for building this facility. I'm very happy that we get to enjoy it and come to horse paradise."

WEC's weekly Sunday Spotlight series focused on Follow Me to the Moon, a 12-year-old Oldenburg mare of Bridle Oaks Farm in Ocala, FL, owned by Charles and Lynn Boyd and ridden by Kristen Parker. Follow Me to the Moon, or "Luna" in the barn, was bred by Lynn in 2008 and was meant to just be a fun project, but she has shown impressive potential in the dressage ring and is moving her way up the levels. Lynn and Kristen brought Luna to World Equestrian Center – Ocala for the World Equestrian Center Dressage XIII show.
