Sharn Wordley (NZL) and his own Gatsby took the win in the $75,000 CaptiveOne Advisors Grand Prix during week 10 of the World Equestrian Center – Ocala Winter Spectacular on Saturday, March 13. Wordley and Gatsby were the quickest of a 13-horse jump-off to secure the win. Santiago Lambre (MEX) took second and third aboard Comtess and Easy Girl, respectively. When asked about his plan for the course, Wordley commented, "Santiago had five in the class and four in the jump-off, and he's always really hard to beat, so my plan was to go just a little bit faster than Santiago." Wordley's jump-off time ended up being only four one-hundredths of a second quicker than Lambre's second place time, but was enough to take the win.

Samantha Schaefer and In The Know, owned by Madeline Schaefer, took the win for the third time this season in the WEC Hunter Derby 3'6"-3'9" on Friday, March 12. The pair finished on a total score of 180 to win. "I really liked the handy course today," said Schaefer. "There were some turns where I felt like he could really show off a bit. He's going to take next week off, then come back for Week 12 to hopefully have a shot at the final big derby. I can't say enough good things about him. He's truly a family member and the barn mascot. He has even had the same groom for the entire time we've owned him, and they are inseparable. He's a really important horse in my riding, and he's my rock."

Samantha Schaefer also topped the $15,000 WEC Derby 3' Open with Emilio, and Christine Campbell and Stallone won the $15,000 WEC Derby 3' Open.

Kady Abrahamson (USA) and Banco Du Moulin proved to be consistent on Friday, March 12, as they took their second win in a row in the $20,000 Welcome Prix 1.45m. Santiago Lambre (MEX) and Comtess took second, and Morgan Ward (USA) and Colorful RW rounded out the top three. "After our win in last week's $20,000 Welcome Prix I was going to give him the week off, but I thought that he would be fine just doing the Welcome this week," said Abrahamson. "More horses jumped clean this week than last week, so there was more pressure in this week's jump-off. Some people were doing the leave out in five strides in the first line and five in the last line, but Banco Du Moulin is a really little horse. We were still able to beat second place by almost one second, which was exciting."

At just 13 years old, Izzy Beisel is making a name for herself in the jumper ring. During weeks nine and 10, she won back-to-back $7,500 Futures Prix classes at World Equestrian Center – Ocala, besting a field of professionals including her father and trainer, David Beisel. Izzy cherishes the time she spends with her horse-centric family, both at horse shows and at home at David Beisel Stables in Goshen, OH. Izzy took time out of her busy show schedule to chat with WEC about her first futures prix wins, her riding goals, and her fond memories from showing horses with her family.
