Brand-New Masterclass with Top Trainer Archie Cox Available Now

With 45 US Equestrian National Champion horses, six World Champion Hunter Rider National Champions, and multiple top 10 equitation finalists, Archie Cox is known as one of the leading trainers in the United States. A winning junior rider himself, Archie went on to earn his degree from Drew University in New Jersey while competing for the collegiate equestrian team. His business Brookway Stables in California started in 2000, and he has been leading riders to championships ever since.

Archie loves teaching and seeing the relationship between horse and rider develop, and he has brought his wealth of experience to H&C+ for a new Masterclass that is available on September 15, 2021. Follow along as he guides students through exercises that aim to improve horsemanship, fundamentals, and rein aids for hunters, jumpers, and equitation.

Coming soon, a new Barn Talk episode will be available on H&C+ with Archie for everyone to learn more about his business, philosophy, and what horses mean to him.
