When did you start Ilan Ferder Stables and what was your motivation?

I began the business 18 years ago. My goal is to have success and win as much as possible. I love winning and making riders.

What do you enjoy most about developing riders and horses?

I like the process of making them and watching how they progress.

What goals do you have for your business in the next five years?

I'm pretty happy with the way my business is going. I hope it continues to be as successful as it is now.

When and how did you develop a passion for this industry?

I went on a trail ride when I was seven years old and fell in love with the horses.

What is your favorite horse show?

CHI Geneva. The atmosphere is crazy.

If you had to pick a favorite horse, who would it be?

Gakhir, known in the barn as "Curly."
