Congratulations to DEFHR Equine Ambassador Isaac and Volunteers, Katie and Alicia

Isaac arrived at DEFHR in March 2007 as a neglect case from Prince George's County, Maryland. He was thin, riddled with parasites, and fearful of humans.

Today, Isaac serves as an ambassador for DEFHR. When he is not at our farm teaching beginners about horse care, Isaac enjoys going out into the community to showcase the many capabilities of rescue horses. Despite his rough start in life, Isaac is also successful in the show ring and recently had a great day competing at Swan Lake Stables in Littlestown, Pennsylvania, with two DEFHR volunteers, Katie and Alicia. Congratulations, all!

Thank You, County Saddlery and The Surrey Saddlery

Thank you to County Saddlery and The Surrey Saddlery for their generous donations of tack to Tinkerbell's Tack and Treasures. Due to the new inventory, we were able to raise more than $3,000 for the horses throughout the past month.

Affectionately known as Tink's Tack, the used tack shop is located onsite at DEFHR and is open on designated days each month. Proceeds from Tink's Tack are reinvested to benefit the horses in DEFHR's rehabilitation program. If you have tack in need of a new home, please call the office at 301-854-5037 to make a donation.

Want to shop? Stop by the farm on Friday, September 16, and Saturday, September 17, between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m. to visit this month's sale.

Horse Network "A Miniature Horse's Big Transformation"

When miniature horse Mikey was seized from Frederick County, Maryland, and sent to DEFHR in Woodbine, Maryland, the years-long neglect he had experienced was obvious. His hooves had grown nearly a foot in length, and he suffered from dental neglect among other issues. Yet, Mikey's curious and hopeful personality helped him rehabilitate quickly and before long he was on the road to a bright future. Tap the button below to read Mikey's story in our monthly column on Horse Network.

Featured Horse of the Month: Blair

17-year-old Quarter Horse mare, 15hh

Blair is an inquisitive mare with a great head on her shoulders. She was recently started under saddle and would benefit from a more advanced rider or someone working alongside a trainer to help her stay on the road to success. Blair loves people, aims to please, and is confident in her abilities. She would make a fantastic trail or limited endurance horse.

Visit defhr.org/available-horses/ and email adopt@DEFHR.org for details on Blair.
