SUNDAY, OCTOBER 9

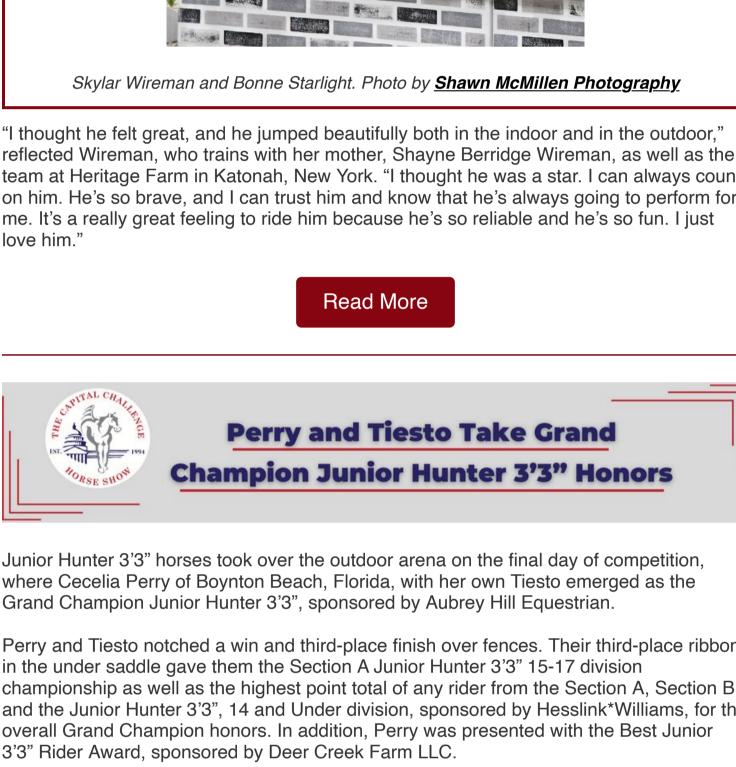

powered by fiContact

SEPTEMBER 29-OCTOBER 9, 2022 PRINCE GEORGE'S EQUESTRIAN CENTER • Upper Marlboro, MD Results and Orders Live Stream

Champions. Wireman and Bonne Starlight first earned the Small Junior Hunter 16-17 division championship, sponsored by Three Ships LLC, with a clean sweep of all four classes. Their stellar performance propelled them to Grand Junior Hunter 16-17 Champion, sponsored by Somerset Farm, and the overall Grand Junior Hunter 3'6" Championship, sponsored by Shadow Ridge. For earning the overall title of Grand Junior Hunter 3'6" Champion, Wireman was presented with the Spontaneous Perpetual Trophy, donated by the Listrani Family. She was also given the Best Junior Rider Award, sponsored by Karen Healey.

Cecelia Perry and Tiesto in their winning presentation for the Grand Junior Hunter 3'3" Championship. Photo by Shawn McMillen Photography "Oh my gosh, I'm so excited," said Perry smiling. "This is unreal. This is crazy. This is not what I expected at all. This was definitely the goal, but definitely not what I expected. This was all a shock."

Piloted by Lexy Reed, Tiesto got his week at Capital Challenge started with a champion ribbon in the Section A Green Hunter 3'3", sponsored by Hunt Tosh, Inc. The seven-year-old Dutch Warmblood gelding by Cordess continued to put his best hoof forward.

NORDS FROM

wanted to come back and show something for all the years I've done with ponies."

Raina Swani and Trademark earned the championship title in the Large Junior Hunter 3'6" 15 and Under.

Capital Challenge Horse Show

Anna Markcrow and Aubergine received championship honors in the Junior Hunter 3'3" 14 and Under division.

 \Box

BIGEQ

RIDERS BOUTIQUE

taylorharris.com Founded in 1987

ThreeShips LLC

WOLF CREEK EQUINE HOSPITAL

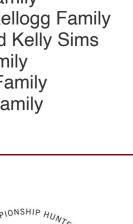

Platinum and Gold Sponsors The Ingram Family The Rein Family The Weisman Family The Wheeler Family

EQUESTRIAN

SMARTPAK

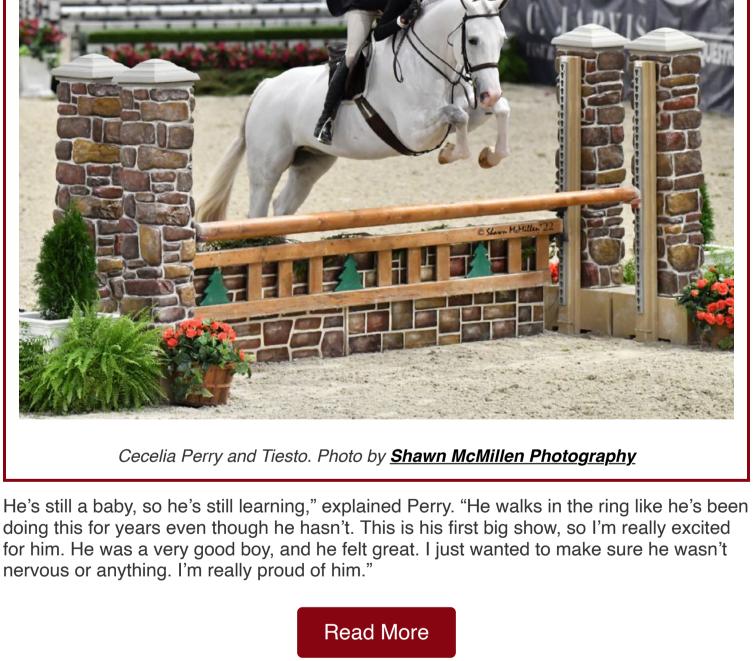

Lannie Lipson Mr. and Mrs. Ernest M. Oare Cheryl Olsten Peter Pletcher The Hallman Family

Skylar Wireman and Bonne Starlight. Photo by Shawn McMillen Photography "I thought he felt great, and he jumped beautifully both in the indoor and in the outdoor," reflected Wireman, who trains with her mother, Shayne Berridge Wireman, as well as the team at Heritage Farm in Katonah, New York. "I thought he was a star. I can always count on him. He's so brave, and I can trust him and know that he's always going to perform for me. It's a really great feeling to ride him because he's so reliable and he's so fun. I just love him."

Grand Champion Junior Hunter 3'3", sponsored by Aubrey Hill Equestrian. Perry and Tiesto notched a win and third-place finish over fences. Their third-place ribbon in the under saddle gave them the Section A Junior Hunter 3'3" 15-17 division championship as well as the highest point total of any rider from the Section A, Section B, and the Junior Hunter 3'3", 14 and Under division, sponsored by Hesslink*Williams, for the overall Grand Champion honors. In addition, Perry was presented with the Best Junior 3'3" Rider Award, sponsored by Deer Creek Farm LLC.

"He's just so good," said Cairns of the 12-year-old Welsh Pony Cross by Jef Sir Lancelot. "He knows everything. He's the best pony, always friendly, and he never does anything

The 12-year-old rider from Amagansett, New York, has been partnered with Blueper for about a year. With Cairns gearing up to focus on horses and Blueper in line to take his next kid from cross-rails to Pony Hunters, this show marked their last competition together.

"It felt really good. I'm really pumped. Having a clean sweep, it was amazing," commented Cairns. "I came here last year, and I had a good show, but no major results. I just really bad. He's just perfect."

Read More

THE WINNERS

Hear from Skylar Wireman after her win in the WCHR Junior Hunter 3'6"

Watch Here

Ariana Marnell and Babylon were champions in the Small Junior Hunter 3'6" 15 and Under.

Sofia Baiker rode C'est Jolie to the Section B Junior Hunter 3'3" 15-17

championship.

591 likes

About the Capital Challenge Horse Show

JARVIS

INSURANCE AGENCY INC.

ine Insurance Co

competing in junior, amateur, and professional divisions.

theproppponies this little inkling never fails to amaze... after winning the first class of the day with an 89, we earned the small younger junior hunter reserve

thank you will never be quite enough | | | | |

championship title to close out a wonderful two days here.

When posting about the 2022 Capital Challenge Horse Show on Instagram and TikTok, be sure to tag us and use #CCHS2022 for a chance to be featured in the daily newsletter.

The Capital Challenge Horse Show, an official USEF Heritage Competition, has a distinct and unique focus on preeminent hunter and equitation competition. The 2022 edition of the Capital Challenge Horse Show will take place from September 29-October 9. The 11 days of competition will include prestigious equitation events, jumper divisions, the World Championship Hunter Rider (WCHR) Finals, the $25,000 3' and 3'3" Green Hunter North American Championships, and more, with many of the country's best horses and riders

Thank You to Our Sponsors

CHARLES

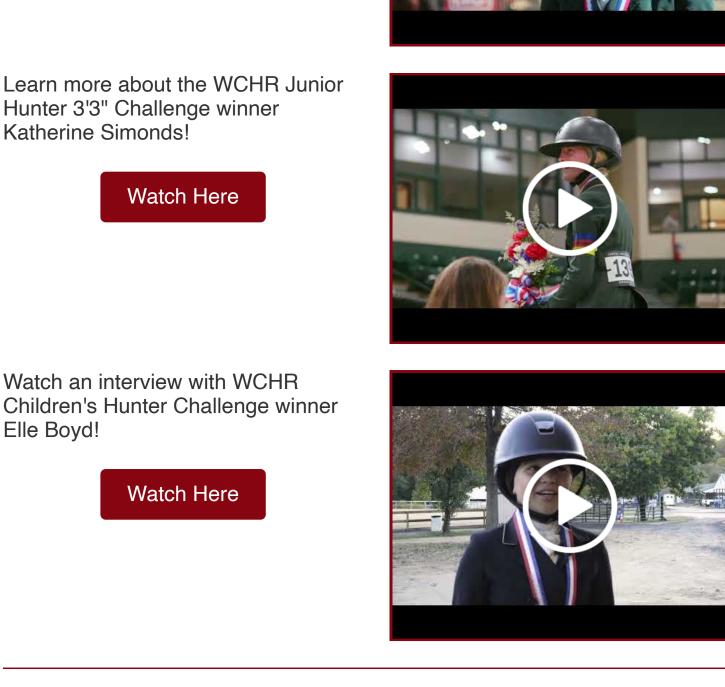

ANCONA

NEW YORK

EquiFit.

Baxter Hill

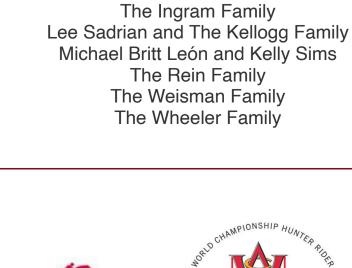

Challenge!

HUNTER JUMPER ASSOCIATION www.CapitalChallenge.org