World Equestrian Center – Wilmington USEF Fall Classic III

Santiago Lambre (BRA) and his own Comtess 202 won the $75,000 WEC – Wilmington Grand Prix.

“I started slow in the beginning [of the jump-off], but I was tidy everywhere. Then I went as fast as I could to the last fence. The distance was long, but Comtess kept it up.”

Tammy Provost and Brenda Christenson's All In captured the top prize in the $10,000 USHJA National 3' Open Hunter Derby. The pair earned scores of 88.5 and 91.

“We have had him for many years. I started him in the 3' Pre-Green Hunter division and he's been my most dependable horse ever since. He doesn't do anything wrong. If something happens, it's the rider's fault. He knows his job and wants to be perfect.”

Izzy Beisel and her own Diaz Barbotiere won the $10,000 WEC – Wilmington Futures Prix.

“I think that's the fastest that we have ever gone together. He is still a new partner for me but we are finally getting to know each other.”
