Make the most of your holiday weekend with livestream coverage straight from the ✨Sweden International Horse Show✨ from November 24-27 on H&C!

Tune in on Thanksgiving Day for the welcome ceremony to kick off an action-packed weekend of thrilling competition.

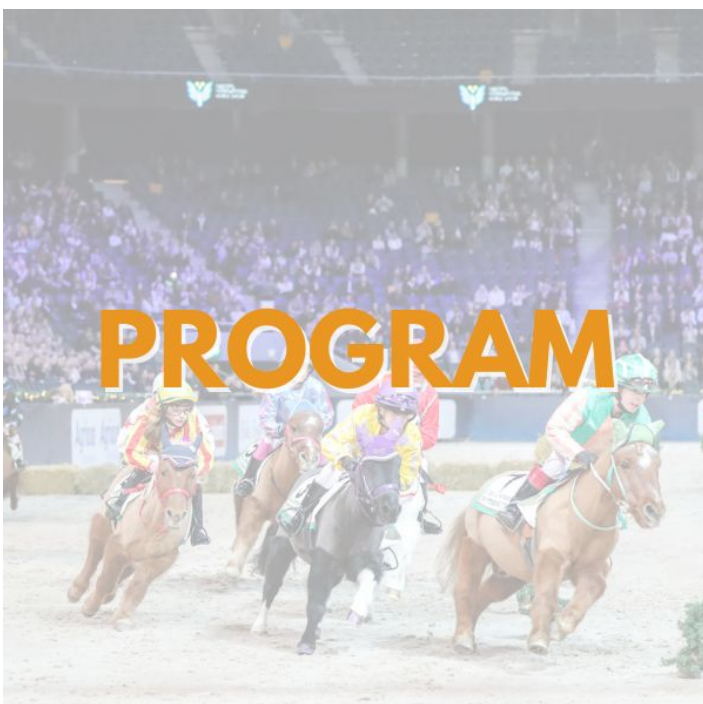

Friday brings a full day of high-level sport, starting with the Lövsta Top 10 Dressage. Then, international show jumping takes center stage with afternoon and evening classes.

The excitement continues through Saturday, showcasing the best of the best in dressage and show jumping. Saturday's program also delivers fun for the whole family, with the ever-popular Shetland Steeplechase.

Sunday brings the show to its ultimate conclusion with an impressive lineup from start to finish. The Dressage Grand Prix Freestyle starts off the day, once again highlighting the most talented international horse-and-rider combinations. The day's competition also features the H&M Sweden Grand Prix, where some of the world's best show jumping athletes will duke it out for the top of the podium.

With driving and indoor eventing also sprinkled into the schedule, there's something this weekend for everyone to enjoy. You don't want to miss it!
