

USET FOUNDATION CELEBRATES RECIPIENTS OF PRESTIGIOUS AWARDS

The United States Equestrian Team Foundation held its Gold Medal Club Reception on Sunday, Jan. 22 at the Wanderers Club in Wellington. The reception was held to celebrate the recipients of three prestigious USET Foundation awards: the Whitney Stone Cup, the Lionel Guerrand-Hermès Trophy and the R. Bruce Duchossois Distinguished Trustee Award. The event also applauded key anniversaries of Gold Medal Club members, individuals who contribute more than $1,000 annually to the USET Foundation.

(Left to right) USET Foundation Chair, CEO and President Jim McNerney (left) and USET Foundation Vice President Bill Weeks (right) present the R. Bruce Duchossois Distinguished Trustee Award to Margaret Duprey (center); USET Foundation Chair, CEO and President Jim McNerney (left) and USET Foundation Vice President Bill Weeks (right) present the Whitney Stone Cup to eventing Olympian Will Coleman (center); and Christian Simonson (right), recipient of the Lionel Guerrand-Hermès Trophy, with his coach and Olympic dressage silver medalist Adrienne Lyle (left).

(Left to right) Devon Kane, Terri Rollins Kane, Karin Flint and Rowan O'Riley; Margaret Duprey, the recipient of the R. Bruce Duchossois Distinguished Trustee Award, with Olympic show jumping gold medalist Laura Kraut and Isabel Kurek; and Pan American Games eventing gold medalist Marilyn Little and Steve Williams.

(Left to right) Olympic show jumping gold medalist Laura Kraut (right) with her mother Carol Kent; Carol Hoffman, Olympic show jumping gold medalist Anne Kursinski, William Coleman and Mary Catlett; and R. Bruce Duchossois Distinguished Trustee Award recipient Margaret Duprey with Paralympic dressage bronze medalist Rebecca Hart.

(Left to right) Karin Flint, USET Foundation Chair, CEO and President Jim McNerney, Nicholas de Lavalette and Elizabeth de Lavalette; Gloria Callen, Beth Meyer and Betsy Juliano; and USET Foundation Executive Director Bonnie Jenkins, Rowan O'Riley and Celene Oken.