

USET FOUNDATION'S "Victory in Versailles" Benefit Gala

Presented by Lugano Diamonds

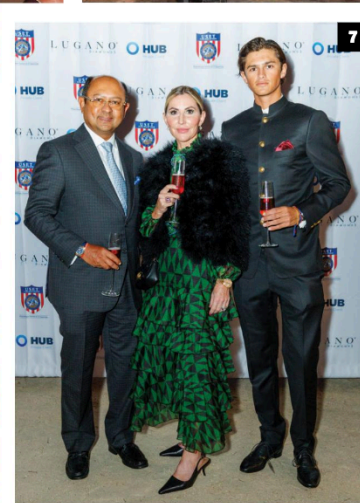

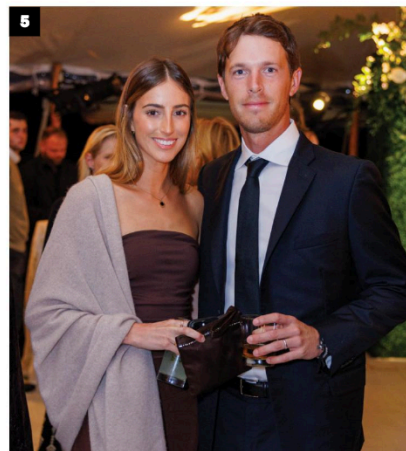

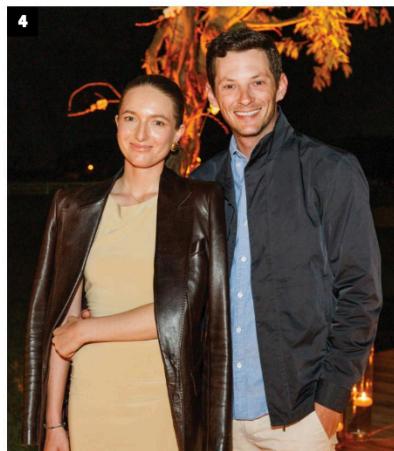

JANUARY 19, 2024
FIVE RINGS FARM • WELLINGTON, FL

HOSTED BY honorary chairmen Patti Scialfa and Bruce Springsteen, the United States Equestrian Team (USET) Foundation's "Victory in Versailles" Benefit Gala presented by Lugano Diamonds had more than 600 guests in attendance and raised more than $2 million to support the U.S. equestrian teams that are headed for the 2024 Olympic and Paralympic Games in Paris, France.

In addition to performances from Scialfa and Springsteen, the event featured a live auction and live entertainment from The Legends of The Voice, a premier band comprising vocal performances from the stars of NBC's hit show "The Voice" presented by HUB Private Client.

The gala also included the presentation of the USET Foundation's most prestigious annual awards:

- The R. Bruce Duchossois Distinguished Trustee Award, given to a USET Foundation Trustee as a way to pay homage to the late Mr. Duchossois' leadership, generosity, and outstanding character, was presented to the USET Foundation's Chairman, President, and CEO W. James McNerney, Jr.
- The Lionel Guerrand-Hermès Trophy, given to a young rider who exemplifies both horsemanship and sportsmanship, was awarded to young show jumping athlete Zayna Rizvi.
- The Whitney Stone Cup, awarded to an active competitor who displays consistent excellence in competition and high standards of sportsmanlike conduct, was presented to five-time show jumping Olympian and Olympic gold and silver medalist McLain Ward.
