NEW! Postcards From Paris

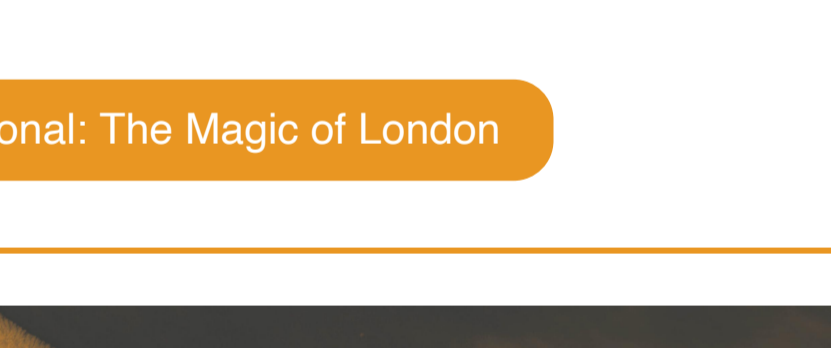

Horse & Country's new series Postcards From Paris tells the story of the 2024 Olympic Games in the words of the people who were there. The series, which focuses on the British Olympic riders and support staff from Team GB, features extensive interviews with the athletes, groomers, owners, and other members of the team, offering a unique insight into a truly exceptional Games.

Presenter Nicole Brown asks every interviewee, "Who would you send a postcard from Paris to, and what would you say to them?" The responses are heartfelt and deeply moving, revealing incredible stories, and underlining the support and sacrifice it takes to reach the highest level of competition.

The two episodes focused on Eventing are available to watch now on H&C+, with the Dressage episode dropping on December 6. Show jumping airs on December 13, while the Para Dressage episode drops on December 20.
